Complete Reference Information

Information that is always required (but never enough): Author (all authors for up to ten people, "et al." from the eleventh), title, year.

Additionally required information per reference type (in orange: required only if existing; location = city and country):

- Book: Publisher, location of publisher, edition, book series, issue, cf. [RN16]

- Chapter in book: Book title, editors, pages, publisher, location of publisher, cf. [Don16]

- Journal article: Journal name, volume, issue, pages, cf. [ZBS$^+$14]

- Article in proceedings: Book title of proceedings, conference location, pages, if proceedings published as regular book: editors, publisher, location of publisher (similar to "chapter in book"), cf. [WZKT10, HL04]

- German law: No author, use "Vollzitatempfehlung" (in English theses, additionally use "German law:" as explanation), cf. [StVO (D)]

- Patent: Patent number and country, cf. [Woz77]

- Arxiv preprint (use only if not (yet) published in a conference/journal): arxiv-id, URL to paper, date of last retrieval, cf. [SSS18]

- Bachelor's or Master's thesis: University (with institute or department), location of university, note "Bachelor's thesis" or "Master's thesis", cf. [Aut16]

- Doctoral dissertation:
    - Published as book: see "book", cf. [Zie17]
    - Not published as book: University, location of university, note "doctoral dissertation", cf. [Pog19]

- Technical report: Publishing institution (including location), cf. [Arr98]

Optional information, which might help the reader find the references faster: DOI, ISBN, ISSN, note "doctoral dissertation" for dissertations published as book, additional URL (depicted in blue).
